Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

□ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Id	entify the	Property	/ You C	Claim as	Exemp	١t
------------	------------	----------	---------	----------	-------	----

- 1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.
 - You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
 - ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)
- 2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7:	Liquidation
$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

+ $550 administrative fee

$1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

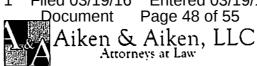

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCredit AndDebtCounselors.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list. Case 16-80669 Doc 1 Filed 03/19/16 Entered 03/19/16 11:38:15 Desc Main Document Page 47 of 55

This Representation Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between _______("Client" or "you") and Aiken & Aiken, LLC ("Attorney" or "we"). You are retaining the firm Aiken & Aiken, LLC and not one individual attorney. We will provide the legal services described below on these terms:

The flat fee listed above is based on the facts as you have described them in our initial meeting. If the complexity of the issues regarding your situation was unclear or understated or, if after review of the questionnaire and your documentation, we determine that your case is more complex than expected or the questionnaire and/or documentation is substantially incomplete, then we are not bound by the flat fee mentioned above. You agree that we will not be obligated to file the case until we are satisfied that the information is substantially complete and any additional fees have been paid. You understand that your case must be filed within thirty (30) days of the first petition preparation by the Attorney or additional attorney fees may be charged. PLEASE BE ADVISED that if you want your case filed on an expedited or emergency basis there will be an additional charge of $500.00.

The retainer funds will be treated as an advance payment, allowing the Attorney to take the retainer into income immediately and the funds will NOT be placed in the Attorney's trust account. If for any reason, you decide not to file bankruptcy after retaining services but before the petition is filed, retainer funds paid as of the termination date shall be credited towards the services rendered through the termination date.

You may pay the fee in installment payments of no more than three (3) months, as detailed in the installment payment program agreement. All installment payments are due on the dates as specified in the agreement. We will have no obligation to file the petition until all of the fees are paid in full. Any fee paid less than seven (7) days before the filling of your petition must be paid in cash, cashier's check or money order. The legal services fee does not include any costs we incur on your behalf. PLEASE BE ADVISED that there is a $50.00 service charge for all returned checks.

If, after an initial, detailed financial analysis is completed, it is not possible or desirable for the Client to file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case and a Chapter 13 bankruptcy case must be filed, a new retainer agreement must be executed for a Chapter 13 case.

2. SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION.

Included Services: This agreement covers services rendered after our initial phone consultation, including the analysis of your financial condition, the types of bankruptcy available to you, the scope of the relief you may obtain under each type of bankruptcy filing, and, where a Chapter 7 filing is determined to be the most beneficial to you: the preparation and filing of a petition and schedules and claims of exemptions with the bankruptcy court, preparation of the certificate of financial management course) attendance at the initial Section 341 meeting of creditors, and review of reaffirmation agreements for secured debts.

Services Not Included: When a Chapter 7 filing is determined to be the most beneficial to you, the flat fee provided in this agreement does not include our services in connection with: requests for production of documents by the Chapter 7 Trustee or any other party whenever requested; appearances at, or preparation for Rule 2004 examinations or reaffirmation agreement hearings; representation related to disputes or objections to claims of exemption; relief from stay; objections to discharge and dischargeability of debts; avoidance of liens; discharge and/or release of tax liens; governmental audits; request for turnover matters; amendments of any schedules (including the addition of creditors); appeal of any decision; re-opening a closed case (for any reason); nor any services after the closing of your case. We are not engaged to represent you in any litigation now pending or filed hereafter outside the bankruptcy court. Any representation for services not included in this agreement would require a separate retainer agreement and attorney fee.

PLEASE BE ADVISED that representation by the Attorney is limited solely and exclusively to your bankruptcy case and does not include any other legal matters of any nature, including but not limited to: foreclosure defense, home loan modification, debt negotiation, and judgment actions by creditors. If you desire representation in any other matter, a separate fee agreement must be executed.

Billing Terms: With respect to representation for matters not covered by the flat fee or in the case of termination of representation prior to filing, the time spent on your matter will be billed at either: (i) $250.00 per hour for attorneys; $125 per hour for paralegal; and $75 for legal assistant or (ii) a flat fee that is mutually agreed upon by Client and Attorney in writing. If either party withdraws from representation, all time and work spent on your case will be included in the bill. In many cases, this amount may exceed the amount of the flat fee (which is provided at a discounted rate). Regardless, you agree to pay the full amount of the invoice, including any balance due over what has already paid to date.

You agree to pay for any additional fees at the time we request payment, unless other arrangements have been agreed to by Client and Attorney in writing. You agree to pay our costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in the course of collection, should you fail to pay as agreed.

3. COSTS. In addition to the flat fee described above, you also agree to pay all out-of-pocket costs incurred by Attorney in the course of this representation, including but not limited to: copying, postage, long distance telephone charges, fax charges, courier, overnight delivery, title reports, transportation costs including mileage and any other costs that are necessary in the opinion of the Attorney to accomplish the purposes of the representation. You will pay directly the costs of the pre-bankruptcy credit counseling and the post-filing financial management class that is required to receive a bankruptcy discharge. If you do not complete this the post-financial management course in a timely manner, it is possible that your case will be closed without a discharge and you will have to petition the Court to have your case re-opened, incurring an additional court filing fee plus additional attorney fees.

- 4. ADDITIONAL/INCREASED ATTORNEY FEES. The flat fee listed above is based on the facts as you have described them in our initial consultation. Any of the following may trigger an increase in the fees in your case:
 - A delay of more than five (5) months between signing this Agreement and providing your fully completed questionnaire and requested documentation;
 - A delay of more than thirty (30) days between providing your completed questionnaire and documentation and the signing of your bankruptcy petition;
 - Failure to provide all of the requested information in a timely fashion:
 - Our determination that your case is more complex than originally thought;
 - Intervening events which change the issues, timing or players in your case;

In such an event, we will notify you that this paragraph applies and we will have no obligation to file your petition until any additional fees are paid.

5. AMENDMENTS. Bankruptcy law requires that you file amended schedules if, within six (6) months of the bankruptcy filing, you acquire or become entitled to an inheritance, marital property settlement, life insurance or death benefit. You agree to contact us within seven (7) days of learning that you may be entitled to receive any of these kinds of property.

You are also required to file amended schedules if the originally filed schedules were incorrect or inaccurate in any way. You agree to contact us within seven (7) days of discovering that your original schedules were in any way inaccurate or incomplete.

- 6. COSTS FOR AMENDMENTS. You agree that in the event that documents filed with the court require amending due to your failure to provide adequate or necessary information. you will pay an additional flat legal fee of $500.00 for amending your petition.
- 7. CONDITIONS. This Agreement will not take effect, and we will have no obligation to provide legal services, until this Agreement has been executed by both you and us and have paid the retainer as detailed above.
- 8. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES. The ultimate responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the bankruptcy schedules and the list of creditors rests with you. Attorney will attempt to assist you in locating and listing your creditors and their current addresses but you sign the schedules under penalty of perjury and you agree to carefully review them prior to signing. Further, you understand that we will rely on the information supplied by you about your assets and liabilities to advise you. Failure to be both truthful and thorough my limit the relief you obtain by the bankruptcy filing. It is essential that you read carefully and respond timely to each and every communication from us. You understand that bankruptcy will remain on your credit reports for a period of up to ten (10) years. You understand that upon the filing of the bankruptcy petition, all of your open credit card accounts, even those with a zero balance, will likely be closed by the credit grantor. You understand that bankruptcy law allows utility companies to require a deposit for continued service. You also acknowledge that it is NOT permissible to incur new unsecured debt after meeting with an attorney but before filing for bankruptcy. To incur new debt within ninety (90) days of filing for protection under Chapter 7 is presumed to be fraud and may result in a finding by the Court that that debt is not dischargeable.

You understand that upon filing a petition in bankruptcy, all of your property becomes property of the bankruptcy estate and, unless exempt, may be administered/sold by the trustee in order to benefit your creditors. Further, if you are operating a business, the trustee may demand that you cease operations of that business immediately while the bankruptcy case is pending. The trustee may sell any and all interests you may have in any business, if the interest is not exempt. You understand that you have a duty to cooperate with the trustee and there is no absolute right for you to dismiss your Chapter 7 bankruptcy case once it has been filed.

9. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT. In the event that you are dissatisfied with representation by Attorney, notwithstanding the reason(s), you may terminate the attorney-client relationship at any time by providing a written statement indicating that you wish the attorney-client relationship to end. If you decide to terminate the attorney-client relationship with Attorney, Attorney shall deduct any and all costs and expenses (including but not limited to: court fees, postage, copies, travel expenses) and attorney's fees (the number of hours spent on your matter by attorneys, paralegals and legal assistants, rounded to the nearest half-hour) incurred with respect to the matter from the retainer and you will be responsible for paying any additional amounts owed.

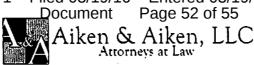

In the event that this office determines that you are not cooperating, unavailable, have failed to pay legal fees in accordance with this Agreement, have provided false information to this office, have not filed your case within five (5) months of this Agreement being signed, or some other circumstance under which this office cannot reasonable move forward with your matter, Attorney may terminate the attorney-client relationship by advising you of such in writing. In such case, Attorney shall deduct any and all costs and expenses (including court fees, postage, copies, travel expenses) and attorney's fees (the number of hours spent on the matter by attorneys, paralegals and legal assistants, rounded to the nearest half-hour) incurred with respect to the matter from the retainer and you will be responsible for paying any additional amounts owed, even if these amounts exceed the total flat fee in this agreement.

10. CLIENT FILES. We will keep your file in an electronic format only, either in the Attorney's office or in off-site storage, after the conclusion of the matter to which the files relate for the length of time required by the current laws/professional standards in place. You understands that you will receive copies of all documents related to your file and should retain these documents. If you require additional copies of your file you understand that you may be charged for such copies.
